License For Gardens Held Up Again

Owner Pleads Against Vine Property Being Used As A Political Football

Action on the application of Mrs. W. J. Lawless for a license to operate the Wistaria Vine Gardens as a botanical garden and tea room was again postponed by the city council at its meeting Tuesday evening. When action was previously postponed it was pending adoption by the council two weeks ago of the city planning commission's master or land use plan which served as the basis for the city's new zoning ordinance. All other new applications for business licenses including that of R. A. Hawks to operate a pattern shop and Mrs. Earl Wilcox to operate a food products market were also held over for 30 days.

Mrs. Lawless expressed great surprise when a motion was made to again defer action on her application and pleaded with the council not to "make a political football out of that beautiful place" (the Gardens). She said the longer action is postponed the more misunderstandings will arise, the more misrepresentations will have to be contended with and the more unfavorable publicity will come to the city.

She said there were 14 near neighbors to the Vine property and all but four of them regarded the Gardens as an asset to the neighborhood and community. She said reports had been circulated that there was carousing at the Gardens until early hours of the morning, which were, of course, wholly untrue. It was true, she said, that parties in private homes in the neighborhood of the Vine had continued as late as 2:30 in the morning but that there had never been any late parties or entertainments in the Gardens.

Mrs. Lawless said she had inquired fully as to restrictions on property in the neighborhood before purchasing the Vine property and that the neighbors who now oppose granting her license might have learned that there were absolutely no restrictions had they made proper inquiry before buying home sites. That operation of the Gardens was not considered a detriment to the residential community was shown, Mrs. Lawless said, by the fact that three persons who recently acquired sites in the immediate neighborhood of the Gardens are preparing to build fine homes.

City Attorney Walter Dunn advised Mrs. Lawless he had consulted her attorney advising him that the council wished to defer action on the license application pending passage of the tax levy ordinance and settlement of the Canyon Mattoon bond difficulties and that the attorney had agreed to the postponement. Mrs. Lawless said she had not been told of this.

Col. H. B. Hersey said there was no feeling on the part of those who objected to year-around operation of the gardens, that it was a question of law as to whether or not the property should be operated as at present. He let it be known that nothing short of a court decision would satisfy those who oppose, even though the council should issue a business license. When he bought his property immediately adjoining the Gardens, he said he was assured by the previous owner of the Vine property that the premises only during the blooming season of the vine. Continued operation of the Gardens, he said, detracted from the desirability and value of surrounding residential properties.

Famed Chess Expert Set Back By Two Valley Players

San Gabriel valley chess fans gathered at the city park Saturday to play against R. W. Banner, Los Angeles expert. Fourteen players attended with L. H. Heath, Sierra Madre, acting as master of ceremonies and score keeper. Banner won 15 games and lost two, one to N. C. Henwood, Monrovia, and Ernest Semlor, Pasadena.

MAP OF SIERRA MADRE AND NEW SUBDIVISIONS, WITH DIRECTORY IN NEXT WEEK'S NEWS

Next week's issue of THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS will contain a map and business directory of Sierra Madre, Santa Anita Oaks and Rancho Santa Anita that every member of the community will want to have for ready reference. The map is 10 by 12 inches. It was recently completed by the city engineering department for use in preparation of the zoning ordinance and is right up to the minute. The business and professional directory lists the business houses an dprofessional people and locates them on the map. It similarly locates the principal buildings, public and private, churches, clubs and civic organizations and points of interest.

In the absence of a Sierra Madre city directory this publication will be found invaluable.

You will want the next issue of the NEWS particularly, and if you are not a regular subscriber, place an order for your copy now to be sure you have the map and directory.

Bobcat Killed Right At City Boundary

The bobcat that has been wandering out of the forest and prowling about backyards in the upper sections of the city, or one of them, was shot by forest rangers just off the Double Drive at the Arcadia city line Saturday.

Two women driving up Santa Anita avenue just beyond Foothill Blvd., saw the animal, measuring five feet from tip to tip, wandering unsteadily along the hills. They notified the ranger station and the animal was killed with one shot. Rangers believe the cat was rabid or had picked up poisoned grain set out for ground squirrels.

W. Decker, former L. A. city health officer, who will speak on "Americanism," and Capt. Bruce, National convention parade chairman.

Democrats Top GOP By 126 In Local Registration

There are 2,515 citizens in Sierra Madre qualified to vote at the big political free-for-all or August 30 primary election. The figure was certified to local officials Wednesday by the registrar of voters.

Of those registered 166 declined to state their party preference and will receive only the ballot on which the candidates for non-partisan offices will appear. Democrats continue in the lead, there being 1,218 enrolled as members of that party, 1,092 as Republicans, 4 as Progressives, 8 as Socialists, 12 as Townsends, 14 as Prohibitionists and one as Communist.

There is a total registration of 1,461,861 in the county, Pasadena remains overwhelmingly Republican among San Gabriel valley cities. Also standing by their old traditions are South Pasadena, Arcadia, San Marino and Claremont. In the 11th Congressional district the enrollment is Democrats, 95,178; Republicans, 81,290; total 199,975.

$5,000 Organ Left To Church By Will Of Mrs. Pritchard

A $5,000 memorial organ will be installed in the First Congregational Church under the terms of the will of Mrs. Alice Spencer Pritchard, who died August 1. The organ will be known as the Fred H. Jones memorial organ, in honor of Mrs. Pritchard's first husband.

The will, filed for probate in the Pasadena Superior Court August 5, gives Rev. Mr. Pritchard use of the family home throughout his lifetime with the request that he maintain the place. Two-thirds of Mrs. Pritchard's estate was left to her only surviving blood relative, Frank Spencer, of Sierra Madre, and one-third to Mr. Pritchard, her husband. Bequests were left to Everett Robertson, the gardener who has been on the estate for a number of years; Hamisuka Hori, cook; and to Ivan Ringham, her financial advisor.

Monday, August 22, has been set for the probate of the will.

Russian Fugitives To Hold Meeting Here On Sunday

The many fugitive Russian organizations of Southern California will meet at the Wistaria Vine Gardens Sunday, August 14th, to celebrate the anniversary of the acceptance of the Christian faith in Russia. This occurred in the year 988 A.D. in Kiev, then the capital city, under the rule of Grand Duke Vladimir Monomachas, who for his benevolence was canonized by the Russian Church as "The Saint." From this period dates the development of all cultural growth in the Russian Empire.

The activities at the Vine will be preceded by Solemn High Mass in all the Russian churches. The afternoon will be devoted to Russian music and dancing and will be followed by a dinner program with Prince Lobanoff Rostovsky, Professor of History at UCLA as guest speaker. The celebration will conclude with a concert of Russian music.

Near Deadline For Easy Way Out To Tax Delinquents

Saturday, August 20, will be the deadline for the payment of delinquent taxes over the 10-year period in annual installments as provided by the State-wide moratorium on delinquent real estate taxes, according to information from H. L. Byram, County Tax Collector.

It is also the last day to redeem taxes for the fiscal year 1936-37 or prior without the usual costly penalties. The only charge at present is interest at seven percent per annum from July 1, 1936.

Taxpayers who have not yet secured statements of the amount required to make such payments should attend to the matter without further delay as the time left is very short.

Payments must be in the office, or, if mailed, post-marked not later than August 20, to be accepted.

Call To Duty Leads Fire Chief Into A Real Surprise

Fire Chief W. D. Richards summoned to the city hall by Chief McMillan Tuesday night was probably saying things under his breath about an interruption in his vacation when he wasn't supposed to work.

When he arrived on the scene he was quite taken aback to find that the firemen's club room was filled with Sierra Madre and Los Angeles friends who had gathered to wish him a happy birthday. A huge birthday cake decorated in red and white was presented to the Chief in addition to a lovely gift. Sandwiches and coffee were served and the plotters spent the evening playing cards.

The party had been arranged by the 20 firemen and their wives who were all present, in addition to Mayor Schiltz and all the members of city council, a score of other local citizens, Miss Clara Richards, the Chief's sister and a group of Los Angeles friends.

Democrats To Hold Rally Here Next Wednesday Evening

The Progressive Democrats of Sierra Madre will hold a meeting next Wednesday, August 17th, at the City Hall to present Leslie H. Preston, Democratic candidate for the Assembly in this district. John C. Packard will speak and Culbert L. Olson has been invited to attend, though his dates may not allow him to be here.

Jerry Voorhis, Congressman from the 12th District has promised to be present and review the accomplishments of the last congress. Leland J. Fogg will act as chairman. The public is cordially invited.

Authorize Big Addition To Police Force

City Council authorized a big addition to the police department Tuesday evening when it directed City Clerk Waverly Pratt to administer the oath to Craig McLaughlin as a special officer, to serve without compensation. McLaughlin is six feet six inches tall—much the biggest thing ever connected with the department. The little gold badge will look like a speck on his huge frame.

City Moves To Put Float In Tourney

Committee To Start Campaign Monday— Meeting Approves Proposed Events

Business and professional folk of the city at a dinner meeting in the gardens of the Woman's Club Monday evening pledged their whole hearted support towards putting another prize winning Sierra Madre float in the New Year's Tournament of Roses. They adopted a resolution requesting Waverly E. Pratt, chairman of the float committee or- ganized last year, to call a meeting at the earliest possible date and get preparations for an entry this year underway so that home gardeners may grow flowers to be used in decoration of the entry. The proposal was unanimously adopted.

Charles W. Kinnear, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce outlined a program of events beginning with a homecoming celebration to be held either in the week beginning September 5, before the schools reopen, or during the week beginning September 12, first week of school semester. The various events proposed are calculated to weld the community more closely together and would include dollar day and other events in the business houses, a celebration at Halloween, and a series of events before and during the Christmas holiday season.

Mr. Kinnear also outlined plans for a city directory that seemed to meet with general favor and which will probably be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. He made a plea for closer harmony in the community and announced that another dinner meeting will be held early in September at which details of plans for the various events on which a committee is now working will be given.

The dinner was served by a committee of Women's club members headed by Mrs. Al S. Myers, club president and Mrs. Gretchen Newberry. A dozen boys served in the dual capacity of waiters and entertainers and did a very creditable job. Carl Hansen, local Ford dealer, presided at the gathering and introduced the proprietors of the city's two new business enterprises. Councilman Tom Schwartz who this week opened a radio shop and H. L. Brown, proprietor of the new Sherwin-Williams paint store, Schwartz and Brown occupy the building at 62 West Sierra Madre Blvd., opposite the city hall and both were given a big hand.

Notified of the meetings request for immediate action in the matter of preparations for a float entry entry in the Rose Tournament, Mr. Pratt said yesterday he would call a meeting of a new float committee Monday or Tuesday of next week. The committee has heretofore consisted of heads of the various local organizations, all of them having recently elected new officers. The personnel of the committee will therefore be almost completely changed and at its first meeting will organize by the election of officers.

Jump In School Tax Rate Seen, Plans For 7th Grade Made

While it seems settled beyond all question that there will be a reduction in the Sierra Madre city tax rate, members of the school board were unable to say yesterday whether or not the increased valuation shown by the recent assessment would result in a change in the rate for school purposes. The school levy is fixed by the county school authorities and in view of the increased Pasadena budget and the fact that the tuition of local students at Pasadena junior high schools has been raised, there will likely be a jump in the rate for school purposes. It is also considered probable there will be an increase in the rate for county purposes.

President E. W. Ward, Jr. of the school board, announced yesterday that the parents of 25 seventh grade pupils have now indicated a desire for creation of the seventh grade in the elementary school here and arrangements to this end are going steadily forward, with the probability that the course of study will be announced in the next two weeks. No decision has been reached with respect to the necessary new teacher.

Zone Greater Area For Residences

Plan Commission Heeds Suggestions Of Local Citizens; Wants Public's Help

Interpreting protests filed against its original master plan for the zoning of Sierra Madre as meaning that the citizens here desire the greatest possible area be reserved for single family dwellings so that this may remain a distinctly high class home community, the city planning commission adopted a resolution Monday evening committing itself to the zoning of as much property as possible in class one.

The meeting, presided over by Dr. John L. Woehler in the absence of Robert Wright, chairman considered all the protests and viewpoints submitted at the various zoning meetings and hearings. The outstanding objection was found to be the inclusion of so much territory in the multiple dwelling classification. In accordance with the resolution adopted this will be scaled down to the merest necessities, it being considered unlikely that many courts or apartments will ever be necessary here, whereas single family homes are constantly being erected.

Kenneth Sampson, regional planning commission zoning expert, expressed gratification that Sierra Madre citizens had so vigorously indicated their desire for high class land usage and congratulated the commission on its unanimous decision to as nearly as possible meet the wishes of the local citizenry. Sampson is departing this week for a tour of Mexico after having counseled the commission in its precising of the master plan. He will sit in with the commission on his return.

Another meeting of the commission will be held August 29, and it wishes the public to understand that the land use plan is still in the making and that expressions from the community will be of great value in establishing set back lines and working out other details of the zoning ordinance.

A request was sent to the city council that the engineering department be instructed to make a quick survey of the set back lines now in general use to be used as a basis for the establishment of proper set back lines in the new ordinance.

Toss Dice To Decide Tie At Legion's Annual Election

They had to bring out the dice box to decide who is to be sergeant-at-arms of the local American Legion post following the annual election last Thursday. Al Bray and Bill Cronin were tied for the place. Cronin won the toss.

The six board members selected out of the ten candidates were Sam Graham, G. R. Lovejoy, W. H. Schwartz, Roy Pickett, Willy T. Clement and A. H. Embree.

Department delegates elected were Messrs. Cronin, Lovejoy, Graham, Jensen and Colligan; department alternates, Messrs. Livingston, Felts, Olsen, Clement, Pickett and DeLong.

Elected without a contest were Norman B. Jensen, commander; Henry J. Mitchell, 1st vice-commander; Gordon P. Felts, 2nd vice-commander; Henry M. Olsen, finance officer; Phillip B. Linville, chaplain, and Ray O. Calkin, historian.

G. R. Lovejoy, a past commander, has accepted the appointment as adjutant.

Senator McAdoo To Be Honor Guest At Tea Here Monday

Senator and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo will be guests of honor at a tea to be given at Wistaria Vine Gardens from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. next Monday. Mrs. John C. Packard of Pasadena will be hostesses, assisted by members of the board of the Women's Democratic League. Special invitations have been extended to a large number of citizens of San Gabriel Valley communities.

Add Another Store To Business Area

Another new business enterprise opened in Sierra Madre this week when Tom Schwartz, popular young member of the city council opened a radio store at 62 West Sierra Madre Blvd. Mr. Schwartz is sharing the store room directly opposite the city hall with H. L. Brown who recently opened a paint store at that address. Mr. Schwartz has had 16 years experience in radio business and will handle a complete line of Philco radios and accessories.

City Tax Rate Will Be Reduced

Council To Adopt Budget And Pass On Canyon Bond Troubles Tuesday

Good news for the taxpayers will probably come out of a meeting of the city council next Tuesday evening called for the purpose of adopting the 1938-39 budget and fixing the tax levy based on this year's assessment figure. With an increase of $54,143 over last year's assessed valuations and proposed economies, the Council expects to effect a reduction in the tax levy for municipal purposes.

How much it will be possible to reduce the tax rate is problematical. Sitting as a budget committee members of the Council have been scrutinizing the departmental estimates for more than a week. Most of them, it is understood, have been cut under allowances made last year. A marked reduction in the cost of operation of the water department is expected to be shown in a new system of budgeting under which utility services rendered to or for the water department will be chargeable to it.

At the same council meeting it is expected the council will make some commitment on behalf of the city towards clearing up the Mattoon act difficulties of Canyon Park property owners. It is understood that property holders themselves have already raised almost $45,000 with which to lift the Mattoon bonds. Their redemption would result in turning into the city treasury back taxes amounting to about $7,000, in addition to releasing a considerable sum for use of the school board.

Under a decision rendered by the State Supreme Court on Tuesday a lot of money in back taxes will be available for municipal and school purposes whether or not the Canyon residents get from under their bond difficulties. The court decided that property owners with both general and ad valorem special assessments on the same piece of land might pay the general taxes and allow the special assessments also on the tax rolls to go unpaid. This would permit Canyon Park citizens to discharge their tax obligation and allow the Mattoon assessments to stand indefinitely though of course the opportunity to relieve themselves of the bond assessments will never again be nearly so favorable as now.

County Assessor John R. Quinn certified the result of this year's assessment to the council and school board on Tuesday. The city's assessed valuation was given as $2,738,650, as against $2,683,907 for 1937. Sierra Madre real estate was assessed at $1,292,000 and improvements at $1,209,850. In 1930 the city's assessed valuation was $3,514,750, and in 1931, $3,444,005; 1932, $2,841,675; 1933, $2,474,640; 1934, $2,349,465; 1935, $2,604,520; 1936, $2,601,875, and in 1937, $2,683,907.

Pasadena's new assessment fixes its new assessed valuation at $80,216,810, an increase over last year of $1,033,280. San Marino's new assessment is $14,645,000; Arcadia's $8,567,000. Monrovia's $6,388,705, Azusa's $1,875,980 and Covina's $1,636,370.

Polling Places And Election Officers For Primary Named

Addresses of all precinct polling places for the coming August 30 Primary Election, together with the names of the inspectors, clerks and judges of all election boards in this locality, appear in today's issue of THE NEWS.

Publication is made over the signature of William H. Kerr, county registrar of voters, pursuant to legislation adopted by the 1937 legislature which orders the localized publication in Los Angeles County of election notices which heretofore have been printed in a single court newspaper in Los Angeles. The election notices are appearing this week simultaneously in 95 different community newspapers in Los Angeles County.

Over 80 Enrolled In Swimming Classes

If there are any boys or girls left in Sierra Madre who are unable to swim it isn't because they lacked an opportunity. Over 80 registered at the free swimming classes conducted for the past few weeks at the Canyon Park Plunge under the supervision of C. N. Stark, Red Cross instructor. The classes close today, but the water carnival which was planned for the final wind-up will not be held, according to Jim Heasley, manager of the plunge. Bob Colbert and Joyce LaLone worked toward their senior life saving badges. Bob completed 64 of the minimum 75 points required, while Joyce completed 44 toward her badge.

Badly Injured Boy
Insists To Father
'I'm Not Hurt, Dad'

Twelve-year-old Jackie Williams, son of A. G. Williams, 400 Mariposa avenue, is in St. Luke's Hospital, Pasadena, quite seriously injured when his father's sedan pinned him to the ground Monday in his own driveway. Mr. Williams is very proud of his son's bravery, in suffering extreme pain without outcry.

"I was steering a heavy sedan which was being towed by a roadster out of our driveway," Mr. Williams explained, "when my young son thinking he could help, dashed between the two and began tugging on the rope. Neither Jack Stumps, driver of the roadster, nor I saw the boy and did not know what happened until I heard Jackie's voice cry out, 'Hold it, dad.' We stopped within three feet and from under the car I heard Jackie say, 'I'm all right. I'm not hurt, dad.'"

Jumping from the sedan Mr. Williams found his son pinned to the pavement by the differential housing. Jackie's foot had slipped and he was thrown under the sedan. Without a whimper the lad was rushed to the Pasadena hospital where his condition is described as good. He received a possible skull fracture, broken right shoulder and a deep wound in the back.

Grace Jensen, out-going president, will turn the gavel over to Norma Hogan at the installation of officers to be held August 12, at the City Hall basement. Baldwin Park Juniors are to be guests. The public is cordially invited.

GRAND CANYON SEEN

Mrs. Anna Davies of Kansas City, who visited her brother Tom McPhilly this week, does all her traveling by air. She flew from Kansas City to Burbank.

"The beauty of the Grand Canyon and the Painted Desert from the air is indescribable," said Mrs. Davies. "There is nothing like it any place." Last year this air-minded lady flew East.

Snow Still On Peaks;
Water Plentiful
In Yosemite

Mrs. Edward DeLong and son Edward, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Anderson, have returned from a vacation spent at Yosemite. They left Sierra Madre July 16 and spent the two weeks "resting and having a good time," Mrs. DeLong said. It was Mrs. Anderson's first trip of that country and she enjoyed her vacation immensely. Mr. DeLong drove up to get his family July 31. Recent rains have kept the streams filled and there is as much water coming over the famed falls as there usually is in May, according to Mr. DeLong, who formerly worked and lived in the park. Also he reports there is still plenty of snow on Glacier and altogether the park is as beautiful and alluring to vacationists as it usually is in the spring. The March storm did considerable damage in the park when a stream 10 feet deep poured through the valley, washing sand and silt high on the banks of the stream.

Local Deer Hunters
Try Their Luck In Ventura County

A party of four Sierra Madreans left Tuesday night for a week's deer hunting in Ventura county at Grade Valley. Included in the group were Collin Hill, Willis Hill, Fred LaLone and Warren Craig. Such seasoned hunters as these will probably get their limit of two bucks within a very short time. Does, fawns, and spike bucks cannot be taken this year. The Sierra Madre hunters are taking provisions and equipment for a week so the deer in Grade Valley had better run for cover when the party gets going. Boyd Keith is another hunter who has been issued a deer license by the Sierra Madre Hardware Company.

Under the Stars and Smokeless Skies

.. the Cleanliness of a Natural Gas Community

The stars seem closer in Southern California! There is no smoke-laden atmosphere to dim them. Skies are smokeless because the prevailing fuel is natural gas. And gas burns clean. It provides the intense energy needed to keep industry humming and to make homes more livable, yet it leaves no residue of any kind. Because of its controllability, too, it is the cleanest fuel for cooking. With gas, you have exact adjustment of heat — you avoid boilovers and excess steam.

Have you examined recently the marvelous convenience features of the new gas appliances? Drop in at a dealer's or the gas company, today! Ask about the very liberal terms.

The... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

AMONG a lot of wonderful books that a friend let us have the other day was one that couldn't wait. Yet an oldish book. James Hinton's The Mystery of Pain. Right now, you understand. With the nations spending billions on inventions for making people suffer. Sure! There's the other side: And spending other billions to help them suffer less. It doesn't—does it?—seem to make good sense. Especially in a world created and ruled by the kind of God we learned about in Sunday school. So, in the midst of all these other literary lures now glittering about us, thanks to the generosity of our friend, this was the one that caught our interest first: Hinton's Mystery of Pain.

WELL, yes. Excellent, of course. Man's in need of a change—in need of new thoughts, new values. He is in need also—a very present need—of assurance—that all this pain in the world is not just so much useless cruelty; that the God of our Sunday schools really is a Loving Father; that God IS Love. Hinton, we believe, does give this assurance—about as well as any of the orthodox writers, what you might call the out-and-out religious writers. He brings in all the best so-to-speak Scriptural arguments. Yet the Chinese baby is scorching and maimed. O Herod! Herod!

WE believe that we also as a child of two or three went into an extremity of pain. Not from fire. But from suffocation. When we almost died of the croup. And we can remember—in some red haze of agony like that of a world afire—how the country doctor steamed our larynx (or was it the trachea?) open from the spout of a silver tea-pot. That and oblivion. Death—the mere physical dissolution—would have been like that. And this but the first of many, many lethal bouts we were to have with Him whom some call Enemy and some call Friend.

SO, read this little book of James Hinton's, if you get the chance. He begins it with these words: "This book is addressed to the sorrowful." His argument—too briefly stated here—is this: That pain is sacrifice, and sacrifice is an act of transforming love. He writes: "It is good to be blest in health, and strength, and family, and friends... It is good to be blest so; but not so good as to be sacrificed—for man's redemption... We cry in our agony, in weakness, failure, perplexity of heart, that there is no hope nor help. No hand seems to direct the storm, no pity listens... Do we say so, and not recall the words which fell in that great victory on Calvary?—'My God, why hast Thou forsaken me?'"

WE don't know. Even after reading Mr. Hinton's book and many along these same lines—the mystery remains. Inscrutable as the Sphinx. In purely orthodox terms, that is. Though not so much, perhaps, in terms that the faithful might be stirred in calling heterodox. Hetero-dox; non-conformist, so to speak—a dox or dogma that is

by MAX BERNIS

Staggered Terms

Why is the term of office for Senators longer than and different from that for members of the House of Representatives?

Article I of our Constitution specifies that Senators shall hold office for six years and that the terms shall be staggered—that only one-third of them shall expire every two years.

To provide a government of strength, our Constitution gives all law-making power to Congress, and to avoid concentrating that important power in one group of men it not only divides Congress into two houses but makes those of the House of Representatives serve for two years and their terms expire simultaneously. But in the Senate the terms are staggered—only one-third of the terms expire every two years. Therefore there are always at least twice as many old members as new ones. The Senate consists of entirely new and inexperienced members.

The idea of staggered terms has proved so popular that it has been copied in many state and local governments—in legislatures, city councils, school boards and others.

The longer term, smaller number and greater power makes the Senate more stable and less subject to agitation, and more attractive to able, ambitious men. Many are experienced public officials who have served previously as judges, governors, congressmen, members of state legislatures.

Under our Constitution, the Senate, with longer and staggered terms, is not only a body separate from but also different from the House of Representatives.

Case and Comment

By Charles B. Showalter

(Editor's Note: The opinions expressed herein are those of Mr. Showalter and do not necessarily reflect the attitude or opinions of THE NEWS.)

THIS old world is growing sick and dizzy with wars and rumors of wars. Each day headlines of a new crisis in international relations that may involve the nations of the earth in another titanic struggle—and for what? To see which bloody dictator shall be the supreme dictator in world affairs.

At this moment one half the population of the earth is momentarily expecting sudden death on land and sea, and from the air. With everybody thinking in terms of conflict, war is inevitable.

War psychology is being most assiduously cultivated in our own land. So much so that the masses think we cannot avoid being involved, if and when the conflagration starts. We have voted billions of dollars to augment our armed forces. We have officially threatened to quarantine aggressors or nations, while government officials of varying degrees of importance irritate the chancelleries of Europe and Asia by criticisms and blundering in their domestic affairs.

Perhaps no people on earth so thoroughly abhor the senseless tragedy of war as do the American people, yet they are unwittingly allowing themselves to be dragged into the bitter racial and nationalistic animosities of the peoples of Europe and Asia. And when Europe starts its next "holiday of hell" they expect, naturally, we will come in. And most Americans have been led to think, "yes, of course."

However, if and when such a war comes upon us, the war in itself will not be our major tragedy. The real tragedy will be our final and complete loss of civil equality and personal liberty. For we shall not make war as a free people but as a totalitarian Fascist state.

On the day war is declared American democracy ends forever. Efforts of the executive to acquire dictatorial status were somewhat checked when public opinion wrecked the Supreme Court packing plan and government reorganization bill, but the Industrial Mobilization Plan and the National Defense Act may be considered as a made-to-order vehicle for the President's political ambitions.

These bills are now on the statute books, and with others approved by Congressional committees and ready for passage—Industrial Management Act, War Resources Control Act, War Securities Exchange Control Act, War Emergency Act—constitute the final grand maneuver to take over the whole country on a one-man basis. This final happy denouement—for him—has so far ended both his political skill and his imagination, but there is all the machinery for it, and if we can just have a war—any kind of war, even with Honduras or Nicaragua, within 24 hours we would no longer have a duly elected Chief Executive—we would have a super-Fuhrer.

Probably less than ten thousand people in the country know about this plan, but if you are skeptical write to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C., for a pamphlet called, M. Day Program, price 15 cents. It is not possible, within the limits of this article, to even summarize this suicidal legislation.

In brief, the following highlights are offered:

1—Every person and every enterprise in the United States will automatically become a part of the war machine, the control of which is in the hands of the President. Congress completely abdicates and a Super-Government takes over.

2—Every person from the age of 16 upward will be at the command of the government.

3—The price of every article and commodity will be fixed by the government.

4—Factories will produce only what the government orders;

5—Labor will be deprived of the right to strike;

6—Food, and all other necessities of life, will be rationed;

7—Incomes will be taxed up to 93 per cent, and profits up to 100 per cent;

8—All wages will be fixed by Presidential proclamation;

9—All business will be licensed;

10—Orthodox laws of economics will be outlawed, civil rights violated, the press, radio and movies censored, and personal liberty destroyed;

California, gateway to the Orient and possessor of two of the world's greatest ports, this week bids farewell to a romantic chapter in its maritime annals while the first chapter in a new era unfolds. As the United States Maritime Commission prepared to take over management of the trans-Pacific and round-the-world services of the Dollar line, courts are witnessing the liquidation of the last company in California engaged in the whaling industry. A new international treaty forbids whaling in Pacific waters, which means the grueling and adventurous profession which knew no more exciting cry than the lusty shout of "there she blows!" will pass appropriately from the stage at the moment a new period in maritime history begins.

Friends and enemies will never speak the same language, even few days ago the Universal Espranto Congress held forth in London with representatives present from many countries, including the United States. Politics, Spain, Italian aid to Spanish rebels, the demands of Sudeten Germans for autonomy in Czechoslovakia—these were distinctly not on the agenda. But, like Banquo's ghost, they stalked across the stage of the convention hall, intangible, unwanted, and unavoidable. One representative from Loyalist Spain was and now wild dogs. You can desert, but not to plead his cause. He just happened to live on Loyalist territory. But his presence inflamed the Italian delegates, and though being able to speak in both Italian and the universal tongue of Esperanto, they angrily refused to talk in either. If a universal peace, the burden of proof is still on the sponsors. They can all learn the words. But suppose they won't talk?

Shades of the wild and woolly West! Here the Los Angeles city council is seriously considering putting a mounted rifleman on the payroll, for new times bring new menaces. Once the city fathers had to preserve public peace and safety by forbidding streetcar conductors, while on duty, to take potshots at jackrabbits. Los Angeles has grown enormously since then, and so has the size of its game. Today dogs who make their lair in the caves of the Palos Verdes hills. They have been mooching a living by getting their beefsteak direct—with the results that dairy cows are being killed off at a very disturbing rate. Killers who like their meat raw and rare always come to a bad end in Western sagas, and these cow-hunting canines will be no exception. A bigger population, a bigger area depend on it—indomitable Los Angeles is always shooting at a new mark!

Fine Home May Now Be Owned For Less Than Monthly Rent

J. Shelton Gordon, Pasadena builder, 3420 East Foothill Blvd., announces that the two homes he now has under construction at 2746 and 2754 Eastado Street, Pasadena, are attracting attention of the public.

According to Mr. Gordon, these are distinctive five-room houses, the general scheme of which has been standardized without sacrificing variety and with a large saving to the buyer. These homes can be built on a level lot with a two-car garage and asphalt driveway for a limited time only for a very low price. Mr. Gordon points out. Inspection of these houses by persons interested in having a new home is invited.

The monthly payments on these houses on an FHA 90 per cent loan would be less than average rent per month," Mr. Gordon said.

Prospective home owners are invited to telephone Colorado 8176 for an appointment, or visit Mr. Gordon's office for further information regarding these homes.

MAP OF SIERRA MADRE AND NEW SUBDIVISIONS, WITH DIRECTORY IN NEXT WEEK'S NEWS

Next week's issue of THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS will contain a map and business directory of Sierra Madre, Santa Anita Oaks and Rancho Santa Anita that every member of the community will want to have for ready reference. The map is 10 by 12 inches. It was recently completed by the city engineering department for use in preparation of the zoning ordinance and is right up to the minute. The business and professional directory lists the business houses an dprofessional people and locates them on the map. It similarly locates the principal buildings, public and private, churches, clubs and civic organizations and points of interest.

In the absence of a Sierra Madre city directory this publication will be found invaluable.

You will want the next issue of the NEWS particularly, and if you are not a regular subscriber, place an order for your copy now to be sure you have the map and directory.

Under the Stars and Smokeless Skies ... the Cleanliness of a Natural Gas Community

The stars seem closer in Southern California! There is no smoke-laden atmosphere to dim them. Skies are smokeless because the prevailing fuel is natural gas. And gas burns clean. It provides the intense energy needed to keep industry humming and to make homes more livable, yet it leaves no residue of any kind. Because of its controllability, too, it is the cleanest fuel for cooking. With gas, you have exact adjustment of heat—you avoid boilovers and excess steam.

Have you examined recently the marvelous convenience features of the new gas appliances? Drop in at a dealer's or the gas company, today! Ask about the very liberal terms. SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS COMPANY

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERNs

Staggered Terms

Why is the term of office for Senators longer than and different from that for members of the House of Representatives?

Article I of our Constitution specifies that Senators shall hold office for six years and that the terms shall be staggered—that only one-third of them shall expire every two years.

To provide a government of strength, our Constitution gives all law-making power to Congress, and to avoid concentrating that important power in one group of men it not only divides Congress into two houses but makes those two houses different. Members of the House of Representatives serve for two years and their terms expire simultaneously. But in the Senate the terms are staggered—only one-third of the terms expire every two years.

Therefore there are always at least twice as many old members as new ones. The Senate cannot be made up (as can the House) of entirely new and inexperienced members.

The idea of staggered terms has proved so popular that it has been copied in many state and local governments—in legislatures, city councils, school boards and others.

rienced public officials who have served previously as judges, governors, congressmen, members of state legislatures.

Under our Constitution, the Senate, with longer and staggered terms, is not only a body separate from but also different from the House of Representatives.

see twice as much!
when you go—
EAST
It's A SIMPLE MATTER to see twice as much when you go East. Here's how:
1. Study the map. It shows Southern Pacific's FOUR SCENIC ROUTES.
2. Choose two routes over which you wish to travel.
3. Then go East on one Route and come back on an entirely different SP Route. You see twice as much and, in nearly every case, it costs NO MORE RAIL FARE.
